

I. You Can Still Go to Hell and Other Truths About Being a Helping Professional

The Importance of Written Criteria	11
Joe Bruchu	12
The French Language as Used at the Day Activity Center	13
Rain Tomorrow	14
Visiting Hutch	16
Beverly	19
Concussion	21
Dispensation	22
Enough is Enough	23
Habilitation Plans	24
Just Sheep	27
It's Not About You	28
How to Tell If You're a Participant or a Staff (A Handy Guide for Day Programs)	29
In the Men's Locker Room at the YWCA	30
You Can Still Go to Hell	31
A Handy Guide to Pay Rates in MR Services	32
Fishing for a Compliment	33
All Better	34
Possession	36
Three Short Poems	37
The Gift	38
How We Did Things in the Old Days	40
The Task at Hand	42
A Direct Care Worker Confesses His Sins	44
The Participant Christmas Party	46
Supervision	48
Broken Toys	50

II. If You're Happy and You Know It Clap Your Hand

Walt Whitman Drives the Big Green Van	54
If You're Happy and You Know It Clap Your Hand	56
As If	57
ASI Room Politics	58
Bouchie's Poem	60
We Could All Use It	62
I'd Rather	64
The Rabbit	65
Leo's Poem	66
Good Friday	68
What You Will Do at Work Each Day (A Suggested Addendum to the DSP Curriculum)	70
Roland's Poem	75
To Do List for the Russian Front	77
The Other Staff	79
How Can I Tell Them?	80
Louise's Poem	82
What I Learned from Johnny Cash	84
Caution	85
Ordering Out	86
The Joy of Working	88
Gina's To Do List	90
Who You Gonna Believe?	92
A Job Well Done	93