PATH & MAPS Course -

PATH & MAPS book

This three day course uses the most current PATH & MAPS book. We will use this course book, additional materials, content and questions, to support each of us to belong and contribute as community members, as well as strengthen our facilitation practice.

PATH & MAPS

Facilitators

This course and book are for those who have been using PATH and MAPS and similar planning processes for days, months or even decades. We also welcome new practitioners who want to make a difference in people's lives.

Course Guides:

- Jack Pearpoint
- Lynda Kahn

MAPS - the update

Think upgrade, version 2.0, incorporating new learning into a frame that continues to be a powerful learning approach for individuals, families and organizations.

The new format is complemented by new questions with a focus on community contribution - important updates within the well proven frame.

PATH & MAPS Course

The course will include demonstrations of PATH and MAPS, as well as team practice.

There will be opportunities for in-depth conversations on the framework and thinking underneath the new materials. This will strengthen facilitators in their work. We will explore facilitation practice and values more deeply. We believe the course will be particularly useful for folks who will be mentoring/ coaching other facilitators. We are trying to keep the group small, with a proposed limit of 30 people.

We have learned a great deal by having the privilege of seeing the 'evolution' of practices around the world. The training we offer continues to change and deepen through our learning. If you have not been to any of our trainings for some time, this is an opportunity to experience the leading edge of our practice and learning. The MAPS and PATH 'update' reflects some of the learnings we have garnered from many of you along these journeys. We hope many of you will be able to join us in our exploration of this 'update' so that we can benefit from our collective wisdom as we move forward.

Issues to be explored:

- Underlying Values
- Community building,
- PATH & MAPS practice & facilitation
- Skill building to get stronger

Tuition:

$600 for the three days
 $525/person for teams of 3 or more lunches, breaks, course materials included

The Book:

PATH & MAPS: Person-Centered Ways to Build Community

The content is gleaned and distilled from the accumulated wisdom of many of our collective experiences - constantly evolving by refining and updating core principles that remain unaltered and true. Early on, we thought this book would 'replace' existing PATH & MAPS books. It will not. It is another stage of evolution. We are adding richness, not deleting capacity.
