

Links to Lives & Reading

Marsha Forest

All means all

Inclusion is fair play
common sense
common decency
hard work.
Inclusion is elegant in its simplicity and, like love awesome in its complexity.

Judith Snow

We must be present

Inclusion is about willingness to take a unique difference and develop it as a gift to others.
It is not about disability.

Patrick Worth

We must be connected

I dream that some day, we will all be able to see each other by our true names, for who we really are, in a world without labels. That would be a great day for the world, filled with real relationships for all of us.

Jerry Miller

I have tried to nurture hope.